

NPS Phone – Quick Start

Once NPS Phone has been installed, you can start the program by double clicking the NPS Phone icon on the desktop. Be sure to have your Bluetooth Headset powered on and paired to the PC.

Setup New Account

1. Click on the Menu and select Add New Account

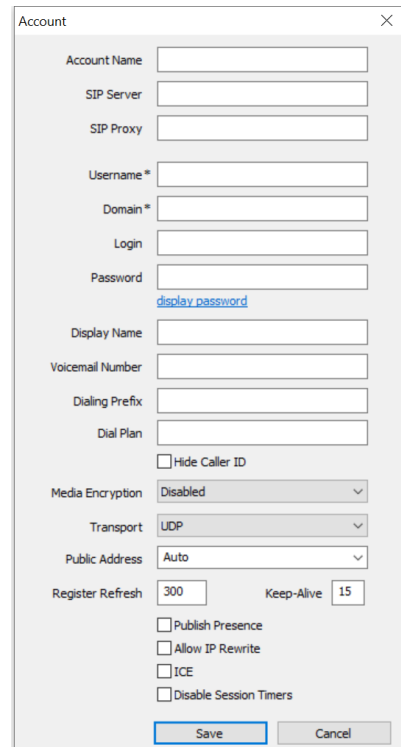

2. Using your account provisioning sheet, enter the information into the highlighted fields below: Your account provisioning sheet was emailed to you during setup.

Required Fields

Account Name
SIP Server
Username
Domain
Login
Password
Display Name
Voicemail Number
Transport
Publish Presence

Click Save

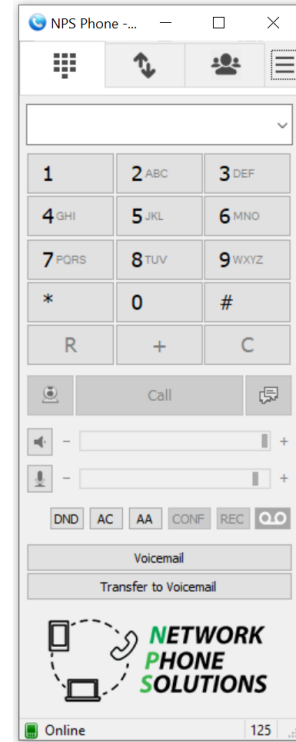

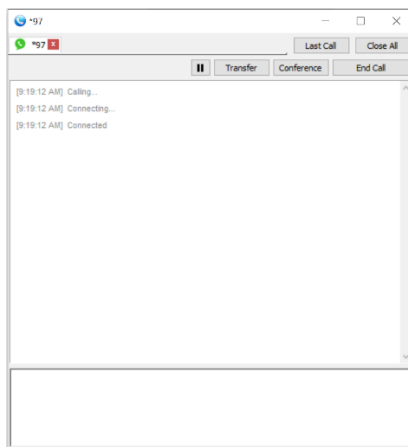

The screenshot shows the 'Account' configuration dialog box with the following fields and options:

- Account Name: [Text Field]
- SIP Server: [Text Field]
- SIP Proxy: [Text Field]
- Username*: [Text Field]
- Domain*: [Text Field]
- Login: [Text Field]
- Password: [Text Field]
- display password: [Link]
- Display Name: [Text Field]
- Voicemail Number: [Text Field]
- Dialing Prefix: [Text Field]
- Dial Plan: [Text Field]
- Hide Caller ID:
- Media Encryption: [Dropdown Menu] (Disabled)
- Transport: [Dropdown Menu] (UDP)
- Public Address: [Dropdown Menu] (Auto)
- Register Refresh: [Text Field] (300) Keep-Alive: [Text Field] (15)
- Publish Presence:
- Allow IP Rewrite:
- ICE:
- Disable Session Timers:
- Buttons: Save, Cancel

Making a Phone Call

1. Click on NPS Phone to activate the app
2. You may then use the:
 - a. Dial Pad to select numbers
 - b. Keyboard (optional)
 - c. Number pad (optional)
3. Select Call or Press Enter
4. The Call Window will appear with audio and messaging controls

Receiving a Phone Call

1. An incoming call will activate the ringer and your speaker or headset will ring. A new window will also appear with the Caller ID.
 - a. Select Answer to answer the call
 - b. Select Decline to send the call to voicemail

